

BRYAN STILL AFTER W. VA. EVOLUTIONISTS

Offers $10 to Professors Who
Will Reply as Did
Spangler.

[By Associated Press]
MORGANTOWN, W. VA., June 3.—An offer of $10 to each professor at the head of a science department in West Virginia University who will make the same answers to a set of questions on the Bible as were made by Professor R. C. Spangler, was contained in a letter from William Jennings Bryan to Dr. Spangler, made public here today by the latter. Mr. Bryan, in his letter, withdrew the charge he had previously made that Dr. Spangler was guilty of "slandering evolution." In accepting the offer, Dr. Spangler had been well served, because "at least one evolutionist's tongue will be tied in the classroom and among the students," Mr. Bryan made his offer to the other members of the university faculty. "Because I regard this as of so much value to the students that I am willing to invest a little more money if by so doing I can tie a few more tongues." In reference to Dr. Spangler's assertion that he did not believe he was descended from "the ape of today," Mr. Bryan asked him what animal he preferred as ancestor. "One man recently told me," the letter said, "that he would prefer to come from a Jersey cow if he had to come from any animal, while another, who is fond of hunting, preferred the setter dog as an ancestor. What is your choice?"

C. & O. CLERKS TO CONSIDER WAGE CUT

Members of Brotherhood Meet Tomorrow Night in Eagles' Home to Debate Reduction.
Members of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway will meet tomorrow night at the Eagles' Home to discuss the acceptance of the proposed cut in wages as the result of the Interstate Commerce Commission's order to the railroads to lower freight rates.

H. C. Osborne, chairman of the local branch, declined yesterday to discuss the purpose of the meeting, but members of the union are said to have talked among themselves relative to voting for a strike in event the cut in wages is made. Other members gave personal views in opposition to any drastic action.

Bishop to Confirm Class.
Bishop Arthur C. Thomson will confirm a class of twenty candidates for confirmation at the morning service of Meade Episcopal Church today. Bishop Thomson will deliver the sermon this morning also. Today will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the arrival of Rev. Thomas Semmes in Richmond. Mr. Semmes was rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church from this time until about eight years ago, when he was called to Meade Memorial. The committee on the new church will deliver its report on the canvass at the morning service.

On Way to Europe.
Miss Mary Scarborough McDaniel sailed on Thursday for Europe, where she will spend four months traveling. She was accompanied by her aunt, Miss Dorothy Scarborough of Columbia University, and her friend, Miss Betsy Camp of Franklin. The degree of master of arts in English will be conferred on Miss Mary McDaniel at Columbia University next Wednesday, in absentia.

WOMAN'S PARTY LEADER TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY

Miss Lavinia H. Egan, of Louisiana, Will Make Address at Jefferson.

Miss Lavinia H. Egan, of Shreveport, Louisiana, who will speak in the Palm-room of the Jefferson Hotel, at 8 o'clock on Friday afternoon, June 3, belongs to a prominent southern family, her father, Dr. James C. Egan, having been born and reared in Virginia, the old Egan home in Martinsville having only recently been torn down.

Miss Egan, who is a newspaper and magazine writer by profession, has since her college days, taken part in all activities for women's advancement. She is a past president of the Louisiana State Federation of Women's Clubs, a former vice-president of the Louisiana Press Association, and, by appointment of President Roosevelt, represented her State upon the board of lady managers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

During the war, Miss Egan was a member of the Louisiana unit of the National Speakers' Bureau, touring the State in behalf of Liberty bond drives and other war activities. Later, she was appointed to government service in Washington, where she did publicity work for the United States Army Air Service till the end of the war.

At the reorganization of the National Woman's Party in February, 1921, Miss Egan was elected a member of the council, which is the governing body of the organization. She has recently returned to Washington from Louisiana, where she has been speaking and campaigning among the book with the record of having organized in Louisiana the largest branch of the National Woman's Party of any State in the Union.

OLDEST JOURNALIST. AT 101, STILL WORKS

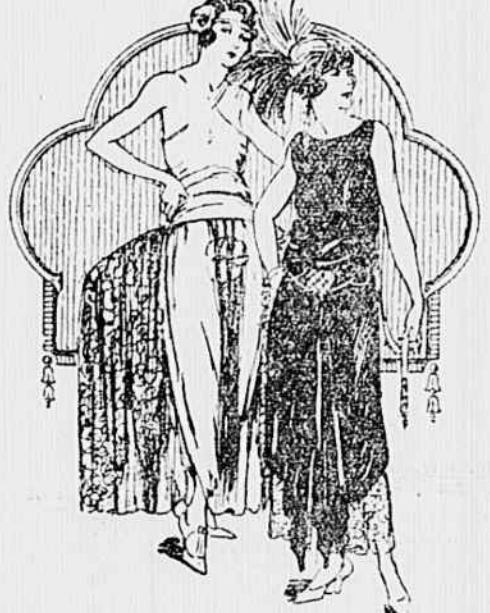

[By Associated Press]
PARIS, June 3.—M. Matile Saint-Prix, the oldest working journalist in France and probably in the world, 101 years old, contributes an article of a column to a column and a half every week to the Abeille de Reims, a French provincial newspaper.

M. Matile Saint-Prix told a correspondent who called on him at his chateau, about an hour's journey from Paris, that his great regret is that he can no longer go shooting, which he had to abandon at the young age of 50.

SALE OF EXCLUSIVE AFTERNOON, DINNER AND EVENING GOWNS

Reproductions and adaptations of the new French models at very great price concessions, interpreting the modes of Tomorrow in terms of the pocketbook of Today.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO BRIDES
AND THOSE WHO PLAN GAY SUMMERS
AT RESORT OR COUNTRY CLUB.

There were just enough of the exquisite imported materials used in these gowns to make one of a kind, so we secured them at a sharp discount, which we are passing on to our customers. Gowns of similar type which had already been received in stock and regularly priced, have all been reduced to the same level, combining to make an extraordinary sale.

Newer, longer skirts—laces dyed in the latest shades—souffle de soie and crepe de chine foundations—these and other delightful differences proclaim them Gowns of the Summer Mode. The fact that many of them are of uncrushable laces will recommend them particularly for resort wear.

Which Has Been Involved for the Past Three Months
In Bankruptcy Proceedings
Has Been Turned Over to the New York Clothing Company
Located at

1517 East Main Street

Richmond, Va., by the Order of

United States Court

The matter of litigation having been settled, Mr. Thomas Moss, who was receiver in bankruptcy, in charge of the merchandise stock, turned over the keys back to the bankrupt by the order of United States Court.

In order to dispose of said stock of merchandise, the bankrupt placed the entire stock in the hands of the famous merchandise adjuster, MR. SAMUEL SAKS, of Baltimore, Md., with the following command:

Dispose of My Stock at Once Without Buts—Sell It! Ignore Cost—Sell It!

Knowing this transaction to be legal and receiving the full authority to act, I, Samuel Saks, adjuster, resolve

MONDAY MORNING June the 5th at 8 A. M.

to swing the doors open of the New York Clothing Co., 1517 East Main Street, and to begin a TEN-DAY which will be the BIGGEST, GRANDEST, MIGHTIEST SALE ever held in the city of Richmond.

BANKRUPT SALE

Money—Money Only Will Talk

The entire bankrupt stock, consisting of MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, SHOES, SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, HATS, CAPS, TROUSERS, OVERALLS, TRUNKS, SUIT CASES, HAND BAGS, also WOMEN'S SHOES, ETC., WILL PARTICIPATE in this

Gigantic Bankrupt Sale

Only once in a great while the buying public can get such WONDERFUL BUYING OPPORTUNITIES. A STOCK THAT IS BRAND-NEW, WITHOUT ODDS AND ENDS—A STOCK THAT NEVER HAD A SALE. The store is full of daylight and packed with seasonable merchandise. Space forbids mentioning details. We just list a few of the bargains, but equal values are unlimited.

Personal Statement of Mr. S. Saks, the Adjuster

Having learned the truth and having received the full power to act, I have immediately engaged an army of clerks to rearrange the stock for fast selling. 20,000 merchandise tags are used, so each and every article in the store will bear a colored string tag, indicating the final bankrupt sale price which will be undisputable one to one and all. There will be no leaders in the store. Every item on sale is a headliner. We will limit no quantity. Buy all you want. Buy all you need.

(Signed), SAMUEL SAKS,
Adjuster.

Men and women who understand the value of money, men and women who understand the value of merchandise, cannot, must not and will not pass off this wonderful bargain carnival.

Not a money-making sale on a few leaders, but a BANKRUPT SALE of a merchant who is compelled to make his word good.

(At New York Clothing Company Bankrupt Sale)

In conclusion, please note: As we have stated above, the store has been in the hands of receivers. By the order of U. S. court the store was closed—the merchandise is all there—no goods has been sold at all—no odds and ends—no so-called shelf-warmers. The store, which is full of day light, will be arranged for this BANKRUPT SALE. All merchandise will be displayed in plain view on counters, tables and racks, so you can wait on yourself. An experienced force of extra salespeople, under the personal supervision of Mr. S. Saks, the adjuster, will await your command. Lookers are as welcome as buyers. Remember the time, date, place.
